

Yanceyville Rotary Club. The first publication was "Wheel Tracks" followed by "Rotary Wheel," and the present "Rotary Recap" furnishes news to a local weekly county paper.

In following the Objects of Rotary, the Yanceyville Rotary Club encourages and fosters the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise in promoting high ethical standards. The original motto, "He Profits Most Who Serves Best," is repeated at the end of each meeting. Since the beginning in 1905, the Rotary ideals of friendship, fellowship, and service to others have been the basic foundations of the organization.

Sources: Rotary International Records of local Rotary Club
Interview with a charter member

— W. Willard Woodard