

Descendants of John Howard and Margaret Clarke

First Generation

1. John HOWARD (HEYWARD) [264] was born about 1615 in England and died on 8 Feb 1661 in Charles Parish, York County, Virginia about age 46.

General Notes: John Heyward, Hayward, Haward, or Howard was the original ancestor of all the Howards mentioned in the book "Ten Generations of Virginia Howards," by Walter L Howard, Ph.D, of the 8th generation, of California, Yolo County, Davis, 1949.

Howard researchers are reasonably sure that he came from England but definite proof is lacking. When he was born is unknown so his birth year is an estimate going by the births of his children.

John was a member of the House of Burgesses of Virginia in 1659 and 1660, from Middle Plantation, now Williamsburg, Virginia. Their home was four to six Miles from Yorktown, the county seat of Virginia, York County.

Dear Daughter:

Your letter received also card from William. Your Mother nor I either are well, but keep up. I have had two colds this winter that almost put me in bed, each lasted from four to six weeks. I am very thin and weak have not been able to work but little for the last tow weeks my bladder has nearly put me out of business am better now. Elisabeth was sick Friday night, has a girl. Had a letter from Sallie West, Nannie has a boy about two weeks old.

Wade was here Friday, Alice's Father is very sick, he said Sisters baby was quite sick the others all right. John Smith is improving, I have been wanting to go over there for some time but I could not on Willies account, will be fine in a few days if Elizabeth gets along all right, will have less chance to visit than ever when Gail leaves next week (18) will have to help Willie all I can and make a garden as soon as the ground dries and it gets warm enough to plant seeds, my peas are nearly high enough to stick. It has been very cold and wet, very little pleasant weather this spring.

I do hope and pray Gail will be with sober steady associates ehen he gets to Texas, his associations here are such that he would never quit drinking as long as he stays here. I do not know what is necessary to get membership in the D. A. R. Of course, the records would have to be traced from the time of the Rev. War down to the present that would entail considerable expense, both of my great grand fathers served in the Collonial and both had the same name, Groves Howard. Groves Howard was the father of Mark Howard and he was the father of Thomas Howard. My father, my fathers grand father Groves Howard and his eldest son Allen Howard both served in the army, he (Grove was born on the Chesapeak Bay over the Virginia line. Nov 5th, 1733, and married Hanna Allin, Marcy 7, 1760, daughter of William and Sarah Francis Allin these were my grate, grate grand parents.

My great grand papents moved and settled six miles West of Oxford, my grand father, Mark Howard, married Rachel Webb and moved to Daviess Co. Ky. And settled near Green Briar Church, four miles from Utica when my father, Thomas Howard, was born in 1812. My great grand mother had a brother Col. Ben Allin who was killed at York Town just before the surrender of the Brittish Army, the record would have to be looked up in (N.C.) to stand.

I enlisted in the C. S. Army on Sept. 30, 1861 at Sugar Grove church, was sworn into the service at Russelville, Ky. Was Company A in the now Regiment after the twelve months men were musted out, served under General Forest (Gen. Harrison, Gen. Wharton of the eights Texas Rangers (or C. Perry's) regiment, after the Battle of Perryville, Ky. Served with Gen. Joseph Wheeler and with Gen. Morgan on the raid through Indianna, was captured July 30, 1863 near Cheshire, Ohio, was parrolled 1865. Graduated 1867 in Feb. from the University of Louisville, there was but one medical school in Ky. At that time. I am a member of Rice E. Graves Camp Confederate Veterans, am enlisted to the Core of Honor but have neglected to claim if.

I am crippled in both legs now. Willies old sow caught one of the best hens yesterday and in trying to keep her from eating it I jumped over into the pen and sprained my right ankle, it is quite sore gave me considerable pain. Willie just came in and told me my fine Registered Birkshire sow has nine or ten pigs, that makes 16 shoats and pigs I have, I bought the sow and six pigs Dec. 14, paid $34 for them have been $75 for them 4 or 5 weeks later. The hogs eat my chickens so much I have switched on to hogs there is better pay in hogs here than chickens. We have but two hens setting and Willie has two. If Gail comes to Texas he will get there nearly as soon as this letter, your mother is not at all reconciled to Gail going to Texas.

Tell the children to come over and help me gather berries this summer. Kiss the babies for Grandfather.

Chester Duncan has bought Mrs. McKenly's house and lot and moved in today, he has bought the store and lot which will force Willie to build him a store house or go out of business gave $7700. for two lots.

George Robards has moved to Evansville, Will Triplett has sold out his store at Beach Grove, the Utica Bank has gone to the wall and the Cashier with the money (Sheril) That makes nine Banks in this part of the state to fail in the last few years.

Write me all the information about the country out there, write soon.

Your father
Dr. T. Y. Howard

General Notes: Charles Morton

Wed, May 3, 2006

Charles Lewis Morton of Laurel, Md., died at his residence April 19, 2006, of congestive heart failure at the age of 91. "Charlie" was born in Chicago, Ill., on March 5, 1915, to Charles Nicholas Morton (born in Canada) and Frances Howard (born in Kentucky).

His family moved to Upper Marlboro, Md., in the 1920s, thence to a farm near Guilford in Howard County, Md., where his mother died when he was 13.

Charlie graduated from Ellicott City High School and attended the University of Maryland for one year. He worked at various jobs, including the Civilian Conservation Corps, until enlisting as a Private in the Army Air Corps on June 2, 1941.

During World War II, he served as a Flight Engineer in an aerial and reconnaissance mapping unit, covering portions of Europe, the Middle East, North Africa and South America. He attained the rank of Master Sergeant and was awarded the Air Medal.

Charlie and Millicent ("Millie") Leroy Britton of East Orange, N.J., were married on January 31, 1942. They made their home in Laurel, Md., after the war, living there until moving to Brunswick in 1974. They returned to Maryland in 1994 and resided at the Charlestown Retirement Community in Catonsville, Md., where Millie died in 2000 after 58 years of marriage. Because of failing health, Charlie moved to Morningside House in Laurel in August of 2005.

After World War II, Charles and his friend, Jesse Mitchell, formed Maintenance Service Co., initially providing window cleaning services, and later also janitorial services and fire damage restoration.

He turned management of the company over to his eldest son, Charles, in 1969 and fully retired in 1974.

In Laurel, he was a member of the Laurel Lions Club and American Legion, participating in many charitable causes, including annual Christmas tree sales, blood drives and food drives. He was an active Mason, a member of the Grand Council of Royale Select Masters of Maryland and a member of the Almas Shriners. He was also a member of the Laurel Parks Association during the time the Laurel Swimming Pool was built. While living in Georgia, he was an active member of the Brunswick Country Club.

Charlie was an avid golfer, boater and fisherman. During the 1950s, he coached Laurel Boys Club baseball teams and served for a while as a scout for the St. Louis baseball franchise. He also had a strong interest in horse racing and was registered with the Maryland Racing Commission as an owner.

Charlie had four younger siblings, all of whom predeceased him. One sister died in infancy. His brothers, Howard and David, were pilots in the Army Air Corps during World War II. David died in combat and Howard died after a 30 year career as a pilot with American Airlines. A sister, Albina ("Beanie"), was an Army Nurse during the war. He is survived by his seven children, (OMITTED). He is also survived by nine grandchildren, (OMITTED).

The burial service will be held privately at Christ Episcopal Church in Columbia, Md., where many others of his family are interred.

440th Troop Carrier Group

The 440th Troop Carrier Group arrived on 15 April 1944 with over 70 C-47/C-54 Skytrain aircraft. There was insufficient hardstandings to accommodate all the aircraft so many had to be parked on the turf, some areas being supported by tarmac.

The 440th was a group of Ninth Air Force's 50th Troop Carrier Wing, IX Troop Carrier Command. The group dropped paratroops near Carentan in the early hours of 6 June and the following day delivered parapacks containing fuel and ammunition to the same area. Accurate flak accounted for three C-47s on D-Day and a further three were lost on the resupply mission, one of the latter in a freak accident when struck by bombs accidentally released from a P-47 Thunderbolt.

As soon as satisfactory landing grounds were available in the Normandy beachhead, the 440th shuttled C-47s to and from France, often evacuating wounded.

As with the other groups of the 50th Troop Carrier Wing, the 440th sent three squadrons, the 95th, 96th, and 97th TCSs. to Italy on 17/18 July, where they operated from Ombrone airfield hauling supplies to Rome before taking part in the airborne invasion of southern France, Operation "Dragoon", on 18 August. The 98th TCS returned to Exeter on 23 August 1944 and the following day the other squadrons returned from the Mediterranean.

The 98th TCS remained at Exeter until 7 August when it began operating from RAF Ramsbury. Three days later it dropped parapacks to a US infantry battalion that had become encircled at Marlain when the German Army attempted to launch a counter-offensive.

On 11 September the headquarters of the 440th TCG was established at the group's new base at Reims, France (ALG A-62D), and the last of the air echelon left Exeter two days later. Nevertheless, the airfield was still used by the USAAF Ninth Air Force for the air evacuation of wounded and a station complement squadron remained until November.

Operations. Trained in the US and moved to England, Feb-Mar 1944, for duty with Ninth Air Force. Began operations by dropping paratroops of the 101st Airborne Division near Carentan on the Cotentin Peninsula on 6 Jun 1944 and by transporting gasoline, ammunition, food, and other supplies to the same area on 7 Jun, being awarded a Distinguished Unit Citation for completing these missions during the invasion of Normandy. Began flying supply and evacuation missions between England and France after the invasion of the Continent. In Jul 1944 most of the group was sent to Italy where it transported supplies to Rome until Aug 1944. The "detachment" in Italy participated in the invasion of southern France, dropping paratroops of the 517th Parachute Infantry Regiment near Le Muy on 15 Aug and towing gliders carrying reinforcements to that area later in the day. Meanwhile those remaining in England continued to haul cargo, and on 10 Aug 1944 dropped supplies to an infantry battalion encircled at Mortain in northern France. The detachment returned to England on 25 Aug 1944. The air echelon moved to France on 11 Sep 1944, but returned immediately to England to participate in the airborne invasion of Holland. Dropped paratroops of the 82d Airborne Division near Groesbeek on 17 Sep 1944 and released gliders with reinforcements on 18 and 23 Sep. By the end of Sep, the entire group had completed the move to France. On 26 Dec 1944, during the Battle of the Bulge, the group hauled gliders filled with supplies for the 101st Airborne Division encircled at Bastogne. In Mar 1945 it towed gliders with troops of the 17th Airborne Division to the battle area near Wesel during the airborne assault across the Rhine. Between 21 Apr and 14 May 1945, the group's air echelon operated from Conflans, France, to be closer to the front. The group transported food, clothing, medical supplies, gasoline, ammunition, and other cargo to the front lines and evacuated casualties to rear-zone hospitals. After the war transported liberated prisoners and displaced persons. Inactivated in Europe on 18 Oct 1945. Activated in the US on 3 Sep 1947. Trained for troop carrier operations in the Reserve. Became part of the 440th Troop Carrier Wing when it activated in Jun 1949. Called to active duty on 1 May 1951 and inactivated four days later. Activated again in the Reserve as a Fighter-Bomber Group the following year. Transitioned from fighter aircraft to C-119s, beginning in Apr 1957. In Nov 1957 the 440th Wing and the 95th Squadron moved on paper to Wisconsin, leaving the 440th Group and the 96th Squadron in Minnesota. The Group inactivated on 14 Apr 1959. Activated on 1 Aug 1992. Personnel participated in exercises, humanitarian and other airlift missions, worldwide.

MORTON - McGRATH

On June 15, at Bedwas Parish Church, First Lieutenant David Gail, youngest son of Mr and the late Mrs Charles Morton, Jessups, Maryland, USA, to Elaine Jessica, second daughter of Mr and Mrs McGrath, 58 James Street, Trethomas. (Special Licence)

April 24th, 1946
Welsh Widow Kept Secret Sorrow

After many months in hospital following the shock of the death of her husband, Captain David Morton, a troop carrier pilot of the American Air Force, in the Battle of the Bulge, on December 27th, 1944, Mrs Elaine Morton, of Trethomas has arrived at the home of her husband's parents, Mr and Mrs Charles Morton of Jessup, Maryland.

She sailed alone in her cabin on the United States liner Washington, too sensitive to tell any but one of the 649 wives who went with her that she had no husband to meet her when she arrived in America. "I didn't want sympathy from anybody," said Mrs Morton, a former Army Territorial Services pay clerk, who had been married for only 4 months to Captain Morton.

In a letter home, Mrs Morton stated that when she arrived at Pennsylvania Station she was met by her father-in-law and received a hearty welcome, which was "crowned with a warm kiss," she added.

Mrs Morton is the daughter of Mr and Mrs George McGrath of James Street, Trethomas. Elaine Jessica (McGrath) Morton; Trethomas, Gwent, South Wales > Jessups, Maryland
