Return to Appeal

Appended
Verdict of Jury

The Defendant having in open Court in this cause giving notice of appeal to the Superior Court from the judgment herein rendered on Jan 16 1892 in favor of Plaintiff for the sum of $35.00 & John O'Briant, the J.P. who tried the cause hereby returns as follows:

The summons in this case was by me issued on the day of Jan 1892 for Plaintiff vs Defendant demanding the payment of the sum of $45.00, or 12.50 per month for 3 1/2 months out of one pool-table, and was returnable before me in my office in Roanoke on Jan 16-'92, at which time and place all the parties, as well as their counsel appeared.

Defendant pleaded that there was no debt so him; that he did not owe Plaintiff anything. After the evidence was in Defendant moved to dismiss the action for want of proper parties.

because the evidence showed that Plaintiff's claim was against the late firm of Stanfield & Will, and the action should have been vs W. R. Will, surviving partner ~~or~~ but the Court was not of that opinion, and considered the claim as against the late J. B. Stanfield individually; and after considering the evidence, although Defendant resisted so great a claim, the Court was of opinion that, and so ordered and adjudged, Plaintiff recover of the Defendant, Adams the sum of $3500, that is for 3½ months' rent at $1000 per month - From this judgment as aforesaid Defendant appealed.

Given under my hand and seal this 18th day of January 1892 -
